

Indiana's No Call Legislation has been implemented and is operating exceedingly well. No Federal (FCC) action should preempt that operation.